The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL aims.lpu.edu.ph/lpumnl/students/. The page header features the Lyceum of the Philippines University Manila logo and name. Below the header, the page is titled "Student Access Module". On the left, there is an illustration of students and the text "Student Access Module". The main content area is titled "User Authentication" and contains the instruction "Please sign-in using your username and password." Below this, there are input fields for "User Name", "Birth Date" (with dropdown menus), and "Password". There are "Login" and "Clear Entries" buttons. A link for "Forgot your password? Click here." is also present. At the bottom right, it says "Powered by AIMS from Pinnacle Technologies" and provides an email address: lpu@pinnacleasia.com.
